

2011-2012 WINTER SNOW SPORTS SEASON

MOUNTAINSIDE BAR & GRILL ENTERTAINMENT SCHEDULE

DECEMBER, 2011: 3-6 PM

December 29-30

COWBOY ANGEL BLUE

Bill Maxwell & James Paavala are the amplified acoustic duo "Cowboy Angel Blue. They have been together for more than 6 years playing music that focuses primarily on singer-songwriter material from Bob Dylan, Neil Young, Steve Earle, John Prine, Townes Van Zandt, Buddy Holly, Merle Haggard, Johnny Cash, to name a few.

JANUARY, 2012: 3-6 PM

January 7

WHEELER DEALERS

Rob Wheelers' songs are a result of his life experiences. This soul capturing storyteller & accomplished musician writes songs that everyone can relate to. Rob offers musical word plays & enthralling live performances set him apart from most acts today. Words of enlightenment or words of despair, Rob's lyrics are crafty plays on his surrounds. Accompanied by rhythms & a barrage of sound, his band, the Wheeler Dealers, entertain & push their listeners into delving deep within their own personal thoughts. Along with their own original tunes, you may also hear some of his favorite cover songs from Guy Clark, Townes van Zandt, & Jerry Jeff Walker. You will also hear plenty of Grateful Dead, old Waylon Jennings, Doors, Bob Dylan, Willie Nelson, Springsteen, Clash and Sublime.

January 14

JOE GIBBON

Joe toured the entire U.S. for over a decade with the rock band Phoenix until he played a show in Northern MN & decided this is where he wanted to stay. His guitar playing can be best described as one word: emotional. One solo can make your heart pound and the next one brings tears to your eyes. Joe is also a guitar instructor, a session musician and a recording engineer in his own studio.

January 21

MARK POMMIER

Mark Pommier is a long-time Iron Range musician, performing throughout the northland since the mid-1980's. As a professional videographer & sound technician, Mark's production skills lie on both sides of the musical entertainment scene, & combine with an extensive knowledge of Iron Range history to engage his audiences in an intimate acoustic setting. Mark achieved a 3rd Place finish in two separate years at Hibbing's Dylan Days Singer/Songwriter contest, & provides his audiences with a blend of rock, folk, country, pop, & polka music that encourages people to sing along!

January 28

2-PIECE WHITE MEAT

Band (formerly known as The Homegrown Boys), featuring Josh Schuchard, Dustin Calgaro, Willie Spragg!

FEBRUARY, 2012: 3-6 PM

February 4

WILD ANGELS

Wild Angels band has been performing regionally for over 17 years and is known for a fun and versatile repertoire, going from "pop to polka" without missing a beat. Members include Rob Swartz, drummer and vocalist, Ross Sarkela, guitar, keyboards and vocals and Jayne Mahovlich, on bass and vocals. Wild Angels' musical portfolio contains an eclectic mix of music from many genres, including music from the 50's through today, classic and current rock, country, ethnic and folk. This group loves to play music and loves to please the crowd.

February 11

JOE GIBBON

Joe toured the entire U.S. for over a decade with the rock band Phoenix until he played a show in Northern MN & decided this is where he wanted to stay. His guitar playing can be best described as one word: emotional. One solo can make your heart pound and the next one brings tears to your eyes. Joe is also a guitar instructor, a session musician and a recording engineer in his own studio.

February 18

MARK POMMIER

Mark Pommier is a long-time Iron Range musician, performing throughout the northland since the mid-1980's. As a professional videographer & sound technician, Mark's production skills lie on both sides of the musical entertainment scene, & combine with an extensive knowledge of Iron Range history to engage his audiences in an intimate acoustic setting. Mark achieved a 3rd Place finish in two separate years at Hibbing's Dylan Days Singer/Songwriter contest, & provides his audiences with a blend of rock, folk, country, pop, & polka music that encourages people to sing along!

February 25

TWO MANY BANJOS

On 'I'm Not Scared of the Devil' Two Many Banjos first full length CD in over a year principle songwriter for the group, Marc Gartman, has done something a bit unusual. He has shelved the banjo and written all the tunes on the Irish Bouzouki. It's not exactly Dylan going electric but for a band that defined themselves (in name and sound) as a two banjo lead outfit this is somewhat of a departure. ...The fact that the band name actually has the word "banjo" (and "two" for that matter) in it was no deterrent for the ever-whimsical Gartman!

MARCH, 2012: 3-6 PM

March 3

PAUL CHRISTIAN

Paul Christian has seen the insides of a many of your finer motels over the last 8 years. Having performed over 802 shows from coast to coast he travels like a true troubadour, spreading poetry, music and love wherever he goes! Paul's first record is titled "Never Been Lonely" and others still remain unreleased. Current projects are the highly anticipated, soon-to-be-released summertime themed, Beach Boyesque "Summertime" record. There is also an "Electro-pop project" and a more "traditional project" in the works.

March 10

WILD ANGELS

Wild Angels band has been performing regionally for over 17 years and is known for a fun and versatile repertoire, going from "pop to polka" without missing a beat. Members include Rob Swartz, drummer and vocalist, Ross Sarkela, guitar, keyboards and vocals and Jayne Mahovlich, on bass and vocals. Wild Angels' musical portfolio contains an eclectic mix of music from many genres, including music from the 50's through today, classic and current rock, country, ethnic and folk. This group loves to play music and loves to please the crowd.

March 17
TWO MANY BANJOS

On 'I'm Not Scared of the Devil' Two Many Banjos first full length CD in over a year principle songwriter for the group, Marc Gartman, has done something a bit unusual. He has shelved the banjo and written all the tunes on the Irish Bouzouki. It's not exactly Dylan going electric but for a band that defined themselves (in name and sound) as a two banjo lead outfit this is somewhat of a departure. ...The fact that the band name actually has the word "banjo" (and "two" for that matter) in it was no deterrent for the ever-whimsical Gartman!

March 24
2-PIECE
WHITE MEAT

Band (formerly known as The Homegrown Boys), featuring Josh Schuchard, Dustin Calgaro, Willie Spragg!

March 31
THE SLAMMING DOORS

[PHOTO FORTHCOMING]

[BIO FORTHCOMING]

ARPIL, 2012: 3-6 PM

April 7
WHEELER DEALERS

Rob Wheelers' songs are a result of his life experiences. This soul capturing storyteller & accomplished musician writes songs that everyone can relate to. Rob offers musical word plays & enthralling live performances set him apart from most acts today. Words of enlightenment or words of despair, Rob's lyrics are crafty plays on his surrounds. Accompanied by rhythms & a barrage of sound, his band, the Wheeler Dealers, entertain & push their listeners into delving deep within their own personal thoughts. Along with their own original tunes, you may also hear some of his favorite cover songs from Guy Clark, Townes van Zandt, & Jerry Jeff Walker. You will also hear plenty of Grateful Dead, old Waylon Jennings, Doors, Bob Dylan, Willie Nelson, Springsteen, Clash and Sublime.